  - The Selectmen discussed drafting a heavy hauler road use and maintenance policy to require bonds for heavy loads going over town roads. The bond will be required to ensure that any damage done to town roads as a result of heavy loads will be repaired.
  - Mr. Tuthill discussed obtaining new signage for reminding residents of deliberative session and town voting. Sue Cheney and George Whittaker, Supervisors of the Checklist, said that they have a sign catalog for voting and they will look for what is available and the pricing.
  - Mr. Tuthill announced that there will be an open house on Sunday, January 6, 2019 from 2 to 4 pm at the old town hall to discuss renovations to the hall. A representative from the NH Preservation Alliance will be there along with someone from the planning firm that the town will be using. There was discussion regarding storm windows needing repair; Mr. Tuthill explained that the storm windows will be evaluated while the windows are being repaired.

Meeting adjourned at 6:13pm.

Respectfully submitted,
